Naming Lost Girl its "highest rated drama series", on December 9, 2011, Showcase announced that the show had been renewed for a third season with production on thirteen episodes set to begin in Spring 2012.^{[1][2]}

Season 3 premiered on Sunday, January 6, 2013, at 9 p.m.^[3]

Season 3

Lost Girl ConFAEdential, a pre-show special roundtable discussion with the Main Cast about the previous two seasons, aired on Showcase before the premiere of the third season. Moderated by Jay Firestone, it featured (in order of introduction) Rick Howland, Zoie Palmer, Anna Silk, Kris Holden-Ried, Ksenia Solo, and K.C. Collins.^[4]

Showcase and Prodigy Pictures held a Lost Girl live tweeting event with Anna Silk, Ksenia Solo, Zoie Palmer, Rick Howland, and K.C. Collins during the broadcasts of the pre-show special and the Season 3 premiere.^{[5][6][7]} Lost Girl trended at Number 1 on Twitter during the episode's airing.^[8]

The thirteenth and final episode of the season aired on April 14, 2013.

Emily Andras, Consulting Producer and Writer during Season 1 and Season 2, became Showrunner and Executive Producer for Season 3. Andras was offered the position of showrunner for the second season, but was unable to accept due to pregnancy and leaving the show temporarily on maternity leave.

Rachel Skarsten joined the cast as Tamsin, a new Fae detective in the 39th Division human police force, and Linda Hamilton appeared as a special guest star in the role of Acacia.^[3]

Immediately after the finale of Season 3 in Canada, Prodigy Pictures and Shaw Media

Showcase poster - Season 3

(parent company of Showcase) launched Lost Girl: The Game, a free interactive mobile game app for iOS and Android devices.^[9] Syfy (U.S.) followed on April 22, 2013, with the United States release.^[10]

In Australia, Season 3 premiered on SF on January 10, 2013.^[11] After the demise of SF on December 31, 2013, the rights to the third season of Lost Girl was acquired by SBS (Special Broadcasting Service).^[12]

The United States premiere on Syfy (U.S.) on January 14, 2013,^[13] was accompanied by a live tweeting event with Anna Silk, Kris Holden-Ried, Ksenia Solo, Zoie Palmer, Rick Howland, K.C. Collins, and Paul Amos.^{[14][15]}

In the United Kingdom (UK and Ireland), it premiered on Syfy UK on April 23, 2013.^[16]

Effective with the third season, the original Showcase opening title sequence accompanied by Anna Silk's voice-over monologue and Lost Girl Theme Song was replaced with opening credits superimposed over footage of the first scene on episodes for Syfy (U.S.) – thus sparing 30 seconds from the overall cutting of episodes seen in the United States.

The DVD of Season 3 was released in Canada and the United States on November 19, 2013; followed by Australia on December 5, 2013; and the United Kingdom on March 3, 2014.

Story arc

With Fae society in upheaval, Bo finds herself facing further changes and challenges. Bo recognizes that she wants to be in a committed relationship and tries to be sexually monogamous. She must also prepare for and go through an evolutionary Fae rite of passage that forces her to explore her past and future. Her former ally Hale becomes the Acting Ash – trying to forge a new balance between Light Fae and Dark Fae by appointing Tamsin, a Valkyrie aligned with the Dark, as Dyson's new detective partner in the 39th Division. In the meantime, Tamsin is secretly working for two separate clients: as an agent of The Morrigan, who wants to build a case against Bo to find her guilty of chi-draining a Dark Fae so that she can execute her; and as a mercenary for a mysterious and powerful individual who wants to entrap Bo. The "gift" Kenzi received from The Norn rears its head, and danger escalates when a human scientist convinces a despondent Lauren to join him in conducting scientific research in his private laboratory – while deceptively concealing his intent to harness Fae genetics for himself with the use of her expertise. The season culminates with Bo ensnared by black smoke and disappearing into thin air, presumably whisked away by her mysterious and powerful biological father who may be The Wanderer.

Bo and Lauren

Wildly popular in Canada, Lost Girl has gained a cult following in the U.S. as well. Bo's (Anna Silk) relationship with Lauren (Zoie Palmer) has also gained a lot of attention. We're happy the writers decided to put these two together — making many fans of the show happy as well.
